

Programs for foreign youth and residents

This is a Japanese language support program for young people and people aged 15 and over with overseas roots who want to learn Japanese in order to live in Japan and want to work in Japan.

In addition to daily conversation necessary for daily life, you will learn basic Japanese reading and writing such as hiragana, katakana, and elementary kanji.

In addition, you can take conversation classes to obtain information necessary for life, support classes for working (Japanese used in the workplace, how to write a resume, how to take an interview, individual consultation, etc.).

* All classes are online.

* This is a group lesson of about 12 people per class.

* Depending on the class, you may need to purchase teaching materials.

* If you do not have a device for online classes, please contact us. (Due to the limited number, it may not be possible to lend them.)
